LITIGATION DISCLAIMER

As this information is compiled from individual sources, Sharp Research Corporation does not guarantee the comprehensiveness or accuracy of these records, nor are they a complete history of activity. In regards to any Supreme Court action, please be aware that cases are not indexed until a RJI (request for judicial intervention) is filed. Foreclosure actions that originate with the county clerk are not filed with the Supreme Court until a RJI is filed with that court. The county clerk's office is not searched as part of a litigation search.

Certain records may not be available for public inspection in accordance with Federal and State statutes and the Rules Governing the Courts or court order. Common examples of confidential records include those involving child victims of sexual abuse, cases involving trade secrets and records in any case ordered impounded by a judge. Confidential records and information will not be returned in the search results.

This information is generated from computerized records in the custody and control of the Judiciary and is intended for informational purposes only. The Judiciary provides this information as a public service and makes no warranties, either expressed or implied, regarding its accuracy, reliability, currency, completeness, or suitability for any particular purposes. Additionally, the Judiciary assumes no liability for the improper or illegal use of information obtained from its computerized systems.

Please note that the Supreme Court Case search does not extend the search terms. Searching Abc will not return Abcd, but will return Abc with other words. Single letters are ignored in the search.

05/04/2022		ORDER deferring ruling on 45 . The remedy for the situation described in plaintiff's letter appears to be sanctions, not an extension, and that may consist of or include sanctions against plaintiff, e.g., a finding of waiver, for not bringing the alleged non-compliance to the Court's attention earlier. The parties are advised that if the Court has to resolve petty discovery disputes that professionals should have resolved between themselves, it is likely that the non-prevailing party will have to bear the costs of the prevailing party in bringing the dispute. 05/12/2022	47	MOTION for Reconsideration by Integra Development Group, Inc.. (Stern, Eric) (Entered: 05/12/2022)
05/12/2022		Minute Entry and Order for Hearing held on 05/12/2022 before Judge Brian M. Cogan. Counsel for both sides appeared by telephone. The parties' motion for an extension of time 45 is granted in part, and denied in part. Limited discovery for the purposes and under the conditions identified at the conference is extended to 6/26/2022. Defendants sanctioned $1000 for discovery misconduct, payable to the Clerk of the Court within 7 days with proof of payment filed in this action. See transcript for details. (Court Reporter: Avery Armstrong). (Weisberg, Peggy) (Entered: 05/12/2022)
05/12/2022		Order granting 21 in part. Defendants may take the depositions of plaintiffs during the extended discovery period. 05/19/2022		ORDER granting 49 Motion for Reconsideration and VACATING the monetary sanction imposed on defendants. Ordered by Judge Brian M. Cogan on 5/19/2022. (Weisberg, Peggy) (Entered: 05/19/2022)
05/22/2022		ORDER re: 48 . The parties may have until 06/01/2022 to bring additional discovery disputes to the Court's attention. However, if the disputes raised are as petty as the ones discussed in this letter, there is a high likelihood that sanctions will be imposed on one or both parties and their attorneys for bad faith discovery conduct. Ordered by Judge Brian M. Cogan on 5/22/2022. (Weisberg, Peggy) (Entered: 05/22/2022)
06/27/2022		SCHEDULING ORDER: Discovery in this matter having concluded the parties are directed to file a Joint Pretrial Order using the form posted on the Court's website by 7/18/2022. The parties are to simultaneously file on the docket a set of those exhibits to which objection has been made, and those portions of deposition testimony that a party intends to offer and to which the adversary objects, both as reflected in the Joint Pretrial Order, so that the Court can rule on the objections at the Final Pretrial Conference to the extent practicable. Exhibits that the parties may use solely for the purposes of impeachment or rebuttal should be omitted from the Joint Pretrial Order. A Pretrial Conference is set for 7/26/2022 at 2:30 pm by video. A ZoomGov link will be emailed to counsel of record. Ordered by Judge Brian M. Cogan on 6/27/2022. (Weisberg, Peggy) (Entered: 06/27/2022)

07/01/2022		ORDER denying 50 . This Court does not delay litigation for mediation or settlement discussions because the parties are free to settle at any time. Here, the parties have had nearly a year to decide they want mediation and are not going to slow down the Court's trial schedule by expressing a desire to mediate at the last possible moment. If they want to settle, they should do it now. The parties can expect to be given a prompt trial date at the final Pretrial Conference. Ordered by Judge Brian M. Cogan on 7/1/2022.
